

What IS Instigate Debate?

Instigate debate is a not for profit organisation set up by Jon McLure of Reverend & the Makers and journalist Mark Donne, with support from John O'Sullivan, Carl Barat from the Libertines and Drew McConnell from Babyshambles.

Instigate Debate seeks to challenge the 'dumbing down' of British newspapers and culture, and to bring 'the chambers of Parliament to every pub, college and street in Britain'.

Instigate encourages students to use their mobile phones to politely interview police chiefs, MP's, celebrities and others who run the country. So far, Boris Johnson, Nick Clegg and numerous presenters and musicians have been "instigated".
